

Dress for Success Fashion Show

Wednesday, March 29, 2017

10-11 a.m.

Conference Center A-B

The class with the most appropriately dresses students will win a pizza party!

Door prizes & FUN!

Featuring:

Designer: Anthony McCray

Founded in 2013 by Ferriday, LA native, Anthony Christien McCray, Christien Kollection is a “bespoke,” or custom tailored clothing line, committed to allowing clients to express themselves by being unique with a professional image. And it has been dedicated to this goal since it’s formation in Monroe, LA.

In the past three years, Christien Kollection has been showcased at New York Fashion Week and has been featured at the West Palm Beach Fashion Week, New Orleans Fashion Week, & many other fashion shows across the United States. Additionally, it has graced the red carpet at both the 2015 and 2016 Golden Globes, the 2015 BET Awards, and has been featured in several magazines. Finally, the collection has made suits for various celebrities like Gospel singer Jessica Reedy, super model Karrueche Tran, Seattle Seahawks Kam Chancellor, and many more.

